

I Stand Proud

So they pushed us all away
Let us go, won't let us stay
So we're outcasts, we are lonely, we are one
And we danced upon the sun
Talked of what we could have done
Laughed away the cruel tears our heartbreak won

And we heard their mocking cries
Saw the anger in their eyes
But we remain
Unrestrained
And we aren't done

*They can take away our freedom
But our spirits soar like birds
They can bind us up, but we won't be put down
They rebuke the joy we're feeling
They believe it's all a lie
But we won't let go of the truth that we have found
If it's a fantasy
I'm wrong, but I stand proud*

One day we will fly away
Forget the darkness of today
Lose this shadow, look with hope towards the light
And we will conquer all our fears
Fight against the pain and tears
Shatter all our chains and break free of the night

And we know we have what's true
We won't give up when we have you
We know we're free
'Cuz we believe
In what is right

*They can take away our freedom
But our spirits soar like birds
They can bind us up, but we won't be put down
They rebuke the joy we're feeling
They believe it's all a lie
But we won't let go of the truth that we have found
If it's a fantasy
I'm wrong, but I stand proud*
